Executive Proclamation

State of South Dakota
Office of the Governor

Whereas, South Dakota was founded with hard work, perseverance, dedication to duty, and concern for others, and each of these attributes can be ascribed to Sue Witte, who is retiring from the South Dakota Bureau of Information and Telecommunications (BIT) after more than 24 years of service; and,

Whereas, On November, 30 1992, Sue began her career in state government with the Information Processing and Services Division for the Local Area Network Systems and Support team where she then moved to the Help Desk and was later promoted to Senior Computer Support Specialist; and,

Whereas, Following the reorganization and the creation of the Bureau of Information and Telecommunications, Sue became a computer support team leader with the BIT Help Desk in Pierre, South Dakota; and,

Whereas, On October 8, 2015, Sue will retire to spend more time with her husband, Curtis, and family and enjoy tinkering with her collection of sewing machines, quilting, crocheting, and knitting; and,

Whereas, It is fitting and proper as Governor to make special note of this outstanding South Dakotan on this momentous occasion:

Now, Therefore, I, Dennis Daugaard, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim October 8, 2015, as in South Dakota, and I join her family, friends, and colleagues in offering her best wishes for a long, healthy, happy, and enjoyable retirement.

SUE WITTE DAY

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Fifth Day of October in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Fifteen.

Dennis Daugaard

Dennis Daugaard, Governor

Attest:

Shantel Krebs

Shantel Krebs, Secretary of State